Judges

Alison Moncrieff-Kelly and Jeremy Carter

Competition regulations

1. The competition is open to instrumentalists Standard Grade 8 and above, aged between 12 and 21 years on the date of the Competition.
2. Pupils of either of the judges are not eligible to enter this competition.
3. Each competitor is to present a recital of contrasting pieces lasting a minimum of ten minutes but no longer than fifteen minutes.
4. Competitors must provide their own accompanists and a copy of all their recital music for the use of the judges.
5. No changes of programme or to the playing order will be accepted after 20 February.
6. Provided the judges agree that a sufficiently high standard has been reached, in addition to the first prize of £1,000 the winner will be given the opportunity to play a concerto with the Lydian Orchestra during their 2022 season. The judges' decision is final.
7. Entries will be taken on a "first come, first served" basis and will be limited to sixteen competitors.
8. The organisers reserve the right to cancel the competition and will only return entry fees under these circumstances.
9. The organisers endeavour to maintain a safe and secure environment for our competitors, but the responsibility for children aged 16 and under lies with accompanying parents and/or teachers.
10. Child Performance Licensing legislation requires the organisers to register as a "Suitable Body of Persons" under the Children and Young Persons Act and the names of all participating children aged 16 and under are required to be notified to Kent County Council, the licensing body.

Prizes

Cash prizes of £1,000 (the Sevenoaks Town Council Prize), £500 (the Sevenoaks School Prize) and £200 (the T.A. Craig Violins Prize) and the first prize winner being offered the opportunity to play a concerto with the Lydian Orchestra. In addition the Sevenoaks Music Club will present prizes of £75 each to the second and third prize winners.

Sevenoaks Young Musician of the Year Competition

As a member of the Sevenoaks Three Arts Festival committee June Clements proposed and inaugurated the competition in 1995. In recognition of her outstanding contribution to the musical education and development of the young people of Sevenoaks, The Sevenoaks District Arts Council will present each year, following the concerto performance, a silver June Clements Memorial Medal to the Young Musician Competition winner.

The Lydian Orchestra

Founded in 1976 by June Clements, the Lydian Orchestra brings together talented young musicians from the local area. Meeting for a week of intensive rehearsals in the school holidays, Lydian gives three concerts a year - in December, April and July. Tours are arranged every other year and have recently included visits to France (2019/2017), Germany (2015/2013) and Belgium (2011). As well as offering the winner of the Sevenoaks Young Musician of the Year Competition a concerto opportunity with the orchestra, we also have regular solo appearances from our most talented players.

Over the years, many Lydian players and soloists have gone on to professional musical career, including clarinettist Emma Johnson and cellists Alexander Baillie and Steven Isserlis, Alec Frank-Gemmill (horn), Geoffrey Paterson and Nils Schweckendiek (conductors), while more recent soloists include 2014 BBC Young Musician category winners Matilda Lloyd, (brass) and Sophie Westbrook (woodwind and grand finalist). In years when there is no tour we arrange a workshop for aspiring soloists to try out a concerto with the orchestra; some of them have subsequently entered the YMY Competition. Recent YMY winners have given a wide variety of concerto performances with the orchestra, usually at a concert in the Pamoja Hall at Sevenoaks School.
